

Hallo Everyone

Well October brought us a sudden blast of Autumn - rain and mist definitely showing that 'Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness'. I'm rather too used to the sun shining most days, so was happy, after three days under grey skies and drizzle, to see the return of brighter days.

DROP-INS this month

Wednesday 5th November Bar le Pablo Céret 10.30

Come along for a coffee and a chat. There will be some paperbacks to exchange and friendly faces - perhaps still on the terrace if the weather is kind..

November - Laroque

Well it's all change at the Café des Artistes. As from the beginning of November the café is changing hands. A Big Thank You to Mel and Fearghal for all their support over the years, and best wishes for their future. We cannot confirm what happens next for our book exchange until we have spoken to the new owners. If we can go ahead, I will be sending out a quick update to this newsletter.

Come and have coffee with us at this lovely venue, and bring a paperback or two to exchange.

The afternoon Quiz and tea party we have been planning (with cake, tea and Cava) will take place in Thuir in the Salle Léon J Gregory in the afternoon. The doors will open at 2.30, with the quiz starting at 3pm. There will be a half-time break for refreshments and cake. Teams will be of 4 people. Numbers are limited but please reserve a table in advance for a readymade team of four, or come along to make new friends and make up a team on the day. Pay your admission on the door at 10€ per person, which includes your afternoon tea and glass of bubbly. There will be a prize for the winning team.

In addition, there will be a bottle Tombola (do donate a bottle if you can), plus the sale of CSF Christmas cards.

For this fun new event, questions will be asked first in English, and then in French - so do invite your French friends to take part.
